

The Cass County Historical Museum is on the National Register of Historic Places. It has been completely restored, redecorated, and it reopened in July of 2007.

The Museum houses archives and artifacts covering many aspects of life in Cass County